About Cultivating Art:

Cultivating Art is a not for profit organization created by a group of people from different walks of life, including professional & amateur artists, concerned parents, and like-minded people with single motto - "give back to society - specially kids where they are not enjoying the real life by using more technology and less nature"

Today's common scene in most of Indian households with their children is - addicted to smart phones, tabs to play video games. This is very bad habit having several physical, psychological disorders in kids as their skin & brain are 60% softer and more prone to radioactive waves.

Cultivating Art wants to divert all these young people from 3-16 years old towards natural arts like drawing, painting, coloring, sculpturing, etc. These natural arts helps kids to look, learn, draw, paint, create, make, and share their creations with the world.

We want children to benefit from these creations into their personality development, physical well-being, gain psychological strength, enhance communication skills, social skills, by observing nature more keenly, and connecting with nature.
